

Job Description: Opti Intermediate / Advanced Instructor

Place of Employment: Olympia Community Sailing (Olympia, WA)

Employment Dates: June 17, 2024 – August 30, 2024 (flexible depending on school status)

Compensation: Hourly wages are approximately $18.00 an hour or higher, depending on experience and seniority.

Perks: staff gift, staff fridge stocked with cold drinks and snacks, staff meals, outdoor gear pro deals

Job Description:

Instructors independently teach Opti Intermediate or Advanced classes out of the Swantown Marina location. They are ultimately responsible for the class and are responsible for directing Junior Instructors that may be assigned to the class. They will lead chalk-talks, monitor progress of students' learning, assess sailing conditions, and be in charge of time management. Instructors defer to Directors and Coaches. Instructors are operating out of a barebones space, and must be able to operate a safe program independently. This additional expertise is reflected in a higher pay rate.

Requirements

- US Sailing Level 1 Certified, or greater
- Current First Aid/CPR, Boaters Card, and Safesport Certifications
- Previous experience teaching Opti Beginner, Intermediate or Advanced classes
- Transportation (ability to travel between OYC and Swantown Marina locations before and after class to pick up and return supplies)

Specific Responsibilities

- Wear staff uniform
- Report any incidents to the Director immediately (safety issues, staff issues, OYC member issues, etc.)
- Lead assigned class independently
- Adhere to OCS curriculum plan
- Design and implement lesson plans, chalk talks, and drills
- Responsible for appointed class and Junior Instructors
- Time management
- Boat and equipment maintenance
- Checking in at Olympia Yacht Club location before class to obtain class supplies and after class ends to return supplies/equipment
- Ensuring equipment is properly put away at end of class
- Overseeing safety, discipline and energy of students
